

Active in The Community

MAKE-A-WISH SUPPORTERS MAKING CHILDREN'S WISHES COME TRUE

Thanks to the extreme generosity of Jim Ferraro, renowned Miami-based lawyer of Ferraro & Associates, P.A., 10 children's wishes have been underwritten. During his attendance at the 2003 InterContinental Miami Ball, Mr. Ferraro pledged $42,000 to make wishes come true. Jim has been a committed contributor to Make-A-Wish for more than 10 years and his incredible dedication to the South Florida community has brought smiles to hundreds of children's faces throughout the years. Jim, on behalf of the children whose lives you have so profoundly touched, thank you! The complete listing of children whose wishes were sponsored by Mr. Ferraro is on page 6.

The "Miracle on 136th Street" Holiday Parade at The Falls featured 2 popular Grand Marshals - World Series Champion Jeff Conine and NBC6 Anchor Pam Giganti. Wish kids Brent and Yordany whose wishes are to be Florida Marlins, rode in the parade with Conine! Thanks to The Falls Shopping Center and our sponsors Procter & Gamble, Publix Super Markets, UnitedHealthcare and Calder Race Course, 6 children's wishes will be granted as a result of their support! Pictured (top left) is Jeff Conine with Yordany and Brent, and (lower left) Pam Giganti with daughters Carolina & Deanna.

Not only did Jamba Juice introduce the 16-oz. smoothie, but also they set a goal of granting a child's wish by hosting the "16 oz. Dollar Day". Jamba gave away free smoothies to customers in exchange for a donation to Make-A-Wish in all 6 South Florida locations. Pictured (l to r) are BananaMan Jamie Ortiz, Jamba Juice's Bart Davis, MAW Sr. Special Events Coordinator Allie Knowles, Jamba Juice's Director of Marketing Jane Alford, and MAW Director of Communications Richard Kelly.

Palm Beach County FOOLS held their 1st Annual Saltwater Fishing Tournament to benefit the Make-A-Wish Foundation. Their hard work and dedication to this event paid off when they presented a check for $4,200 to grant a child's wish! Pictured are Tournament Chairmen Buddy Yarbrough (l) and Dwight Saxton (r) with MAW Volunteers Jason and Susan Carney.

The Turner-Austin Airport Team chose Make-A-Wish to benefit from their 1st Annual Partnership for Charity Golf Tournament. Barry Pfister and his team raised funds from their tournament to make 5 children's wishes a reality! Pictured (l to r) are Kristine and Barry Pfister with Make-A-Wish Senior Special Events Coordinator Allie Knowles

Thank you Herb Leipold for your incredible generosity throughout the last 10 years. In addition to helping to underwrite the cost of children's wishes through his family foundation, Herb has been bringing smiles to their faces with his gift of teddy bears. On behalf of all of the children that you've helped, thank you Herb for your extreme kindness! Pictured is MAW Donor Relations Manager Kathy Dunbar with Herb Leipold.